DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On December 21, 2020, Alan Oka filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA"), a defined Table Injury, after receiving the influenza ("flu") vaccine on October 26, 2019. Petition at 1, ¶¶ 1, 4. On August 15, 2023, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. ECF No. 26.

¹ Because this unpublished Decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, I am required to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services). This means the Decision will be available to anyone with access to the internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), Petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated February 13, 2023 (ECF No. 32), requesting a total award of $25,195.12 (representing $23,239.40 in fees and $1,955.72 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that he incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Id. at 2. Respondent reacted to the motion on February 14, 2023, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded at the Court's discretion. (ECF No. 33. On February 17, 2023, Petitioner filed a reply requesting attorney fees and costs be awarded in full. ECF No. 34

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $25,195.12 (representing $23,239.40 in fees and $1,955.72 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
